GEOM1033/1159 assignment marking sheet - 2019

Yes	No	Issue
		1. An appropriate application has been selected.
		2. Report is correctly structured, with: • A clear title/heading • Clear headings for each section (as per the assignment handout)
		3. • Introduction clearly outlines how GIS has been used in the selected application area and narrows the focus to a particular topic within the area. • Appropriate data model/s have been identified and justified. • Possible data sets and data sources have been described. • Typical analysis steps have been outlined/discussed. • Possible products to be developed using GIS have been identified • Any other issues relevant to the application or limiting the utilisation of GIS in your chosen application area have been discussed. • A reference list is included.
		4. • At least three authoritative references have been used by students in GEOM1033. • At least six authoritative references have been used by students in GEOM1159. • Reference list is in alphabetical order. • Referencing is by surname/organisation. • References are correctly cited (using the Harvard system) throughout the assignment i.e. Mashford (2016), stated that data issues are prevalent… or …data issues are prevalent (Mashford, 2016).
		5. Assignment is an appropriate length.
		6. Images have been used appropriately (when necessary) and referenced.
		Spelling and grammar
		7. Good spelling.
		8. Good grammar.
		9. Good sentence structure.
		10. Assignment has been properly edited before submitting.
		Comments